Benefits according to the Family and Culture Pass

Guidelines for the award

Benefits for low-income families and individuals

What is the Family and Culture Pass?

The Family and Culture Pass of the City of Backnang (FKP) helps low-income families and individuals to participate social and cultural life.

Who can get such a pass?

The pass is issued to persons who live in Backnang and whose household members together do not exceed a certain income limit. The pass is then issued to each family member from the age of 7.

What is the benefit of the Family and Culture Pass for the eligible persons?

The Family and Culture Pass of the City of Backnang includes numerous discounts that are meant to make life in Backnang easier for eligible families and individuals.

For how long is the pass valid?

The Family and Culture Pass is generally issued for one year. The date of expiry is determined by the issuing office.

Where can I get more detailed information?

You can get more information from the Office for Family, Youth and Education of the City of Backnang by calling 07191 894-248 or online at www.backnang.de.

Discounts of 50 % are available through the Family and Culture Pass for the following events and tickets:

- Individual events of the Backnang community centre and the city gallery
- Single tickets for the Murrbäder sports and family pools Backnang Wonnemar
- Single tickets for the open-air swimming pool for children, adults and families
- Swimming courses in the Backnang pools

A discount of 50 % is also possible for the following contributions and fees:

- Membership fee for a variety of sports and music clubs
- Parental contributions for all day-care facilities, the morning childcare services at primary schools and after-school care
- Annual fees at the public library
- Lessons at the Youth Music School/Arts School
- Courses at the Backnang Adult Education Centre up to a maximum of € 300 per person

Recipients of the education and participation package may be excluded from these benefits.
